

Lawyer (Deputy District Registrar)

As a service provider for the Province of Manitoba, The Property Registry's (TPR) main function is to provide certification of titles to land, maintain land records and provide reliable information of financial interests in personal property to the public. The Property Registry consists of two registries: the Land Titles Office and the Personal Property Registry. The Land Titles Office maintains all records of land ownership and survey plans, and the Personal Property Registry maintains all registrations under Personal Property legislation.

It's our knowledge, dedication and passion for our work that enables The Property Registry team to provide exceptional service delivery. This is made possible through a positive work culture based on trust, open communication and teamwork. We believe in a real work-life balance, providing employees with competitive wages, a comprehensive benefits package and a defined benefit pension plan. We also enable career development through various training and work opportunities.

Our people make all the difference.

- We are resilient and resourceful
- We create value
- We help each other succeed
- We deliver what we promise
- We value and respect one another

Lawyer (Deputy District Registrar) – Brandon, MB

Regular/full-time

Posted Date: October 26, 2018

Closing Date: November 9, 2018

The Opportunity:

As a Deputy District Registrar you will work with a talented and experienced team of lawyers to provide leadership and direction to TPR on all aspects of Land Titles and Personal Property Registry matters. You will advise external lawyers, land surveyors, government and municipal officials, members of the public and TPR staff to ensure conformity with the objectives of all applicable laws, regulations and practice directives. Periodically you will give public presentations to various stakeholder groups and you will assist in the preservation of our internal knowledge base.

Qualifications:

You are a lawyer and a member of The Law Society of Manitoba. This is complemented by your knowledge of or the desire to learn Real Property and Personal Property legislation. Familiarity with Land Titles and Personal Property Registry policies, practices and procedures is a definite asset. You have an aptitude for research and the analysis, interpretation and application of legislation and common law in the context of complex and/or uncommon legal issues. You would enjoy explaining legislation, common law, policies and procedures to a range of clients including the legal profession, the public and internal staff. You have a demonstrated ability to function in a team environment, excellent communication skills, and a commitment to lifelong learning. You are willing and able to travel to other TPR locations throughout the Province and to participate in management project initiatives as required. A satisfactory Criminal Record Check and legal entitlement to work in Canada are also conditions of employment.

Apply Now:

Email: careers@tprmb.ca

Please include the position title and location in the subject line of your e-mail and/or cover letter and emails without this information will not be opened for security reasons.

The Property Registry is an equal opportunity employer and welcomes applications from all qualified persons. We thank all those who apply and advise that only those selected for further consideration will be contacted. An eligibility list may be created for similar positions and will remain in effect for 12 months.