

SUBMIT TO: ADMISSIONS AND MEMBERSHIP DEPARTMENT

Law Society Rule 5-5(1) is set out below:

5-5(1) Every articling student must successfully complete the CPLED program within 2 years from the date of commencement of either the CPLED program or the student’s articles, whichever is commenced earlier, and every articling student must serve, unless abridged by the chief executive officer,
(a) at least 52 weeks of full-time articles; or
(b) part-time articles which are equivalent to 52 weeks of full-time articles, as approved by the chief executive officer.

Abridgments of more than four weeks will only be granted in exceptional circumstances.

NAME: _____

FIRM: _____ PRINCIPAL: _____

Date articles approved to commence: _____

I have successfully completed the CPLED Program Yes No

Anticipated date of completion: _____

Number of weeks of articles served: _____ Vacation time taken: _____

Number of weeks for which abridgement is requested: _____

Reasons why abridgement required:
(Please provide full details, using additional pages if necessary)

_____ Date

_____ Student’s Signature

You may appeal an unsuccessful application to the Admissions and Education Committee within 14 days of notification of the decision. Contact Lisa Ehnes, Secretary to the Admissions and Education Committee, at lehnes@lawsociety.mb.ca or (204) 926-2042.