

THE LAW SOCIETY OF MANITOBA

NOTICE OF INJUNCTION

IN THE MATTER OF The Law Society of Manitoba, and Michael Kalo the following Order was pronounced at the Court of Queen's Bench on March 28, 2019:

1. THIS COURT ORDERS AND ADJUDGES that the respondent, MICHAEL KALO, be, and is hereby, enjoined and restrained from practising, or attempting to practise law, or offering or providing legal services, whether or not for reward or consideration of any kind, including, but not limited to:

- i) drawing or advising upon documents for use in legal proceedings or that are intended to affect the legal rights of any person other than himself, including any corporation;
- ii) appearing in court on behalf of any person other than himself, including any corporation, or otherwise advocating in or advising upon proceedings in any court;
- iii) appearing before any board, tribunal or adjudicative body of any kind on behalf of any person other than himself, including any corporation, or otherwise advocating in or advising upon any such proceedings;
- iv) participating in communications for the settlement of any dispute or contested issue on behalf of any person other than himself, including any corporation;
- v) holding himself out as having experience, expertise in the law or the practice of law.