(ENACTED 10/11)

Requirements

5-27.2(5) A Canadian legal advisor must

- (a) be a member in good standing of the Barreau du Quebec or the Chambre des notaires du Quebec authorized to practise law in Quebec, and
- (b) immediately notify the chief executive officer in writing if he or she ceases to be authorized to practise law in Quebec.

(ENACTED 10/10) (AM. 10/11)

Compliance with Act and rules

5-27.2(6) A member in good standing who is admitted as a Canadian legal advisor has all the duties and responsibilities of a practising lawyer under the Act, these rules and the code. (ENACTED 10/10) (AM. 10/11)

Marketing legal services

5-27.2(7) A Canadian legal advisor, when engaging in advertising or any other form of marketing activity in Manitoba must have his or her name followed by the title "Canadian Legal Advisor" and a reference that he or she is legally authorized to practise law in the province of Quebec. (ENACTED 10/10) (AM. 10/11)

Appeals

(ENACTED 10/10)

Appeal of admissions decisions

5-28(1) Subject to subsection (8), a decision of the chief executive officer made pursuant to the rules in this division may be appealed to the committee by the completion and filing of the required notice of appeal within 14 days of receipt of written confirmation of the decision and the right to appeal. The appeal process will be governed by guidelines adopted by the benchers. (ENACTED 10/07) (AM. 04/10; 05/12)

Appointment and composition of panel

5-28(2) The chairperson of the committee must select a panel of three members of the appeals sub-committee to consider any appeal made under subsection (1). One of the panel members must be a public representative. Two of the panel members must have current practising certificates, unless it is not reasonably practicable to have two practising members on the panel, in which case the chairperson may appoint one practising member and one non-practising member to sit on the panel. (ENACTED 10/07) (AM. 05/08; 05/12) (AM. 04/24)

Hearings

5-28(3) A panel must conduct an appeal based on a consideration of written submissions and other relevant materials, except where the chairperson of the committee directs or the appellant requests an oral hearing. During an oral hearing, neither the appellant nor any other person may give oral evidence, except with leave of the appeal panel and then only in such exceptional circumstances as the appeal panel may determine. The testimony of an appellant or any other person at an oral hearing must be taken under oath unless the chairperson of the panel waives the requirement. An oath must be administered by the chairperson of the panel. (ENACTED 05/08) (AM. 05/12; 05/14)

Hearing to be public

5-28(4) An oral hearing convened under sub-section (3) must be open to the public unless the panel makes an order under sub-section (5). (ENACTED 06/09)

Exclusion of members of public

5-28(5) A panel considering an appeal under sub-section (3) may make an order excluding members of the public from a hearing if it thinks that:

- (a) exclusion is necessary to prevent the disclosure of information that is subject to solicitor-client privilege; or
- (b) the public interest in the disclosure of other information is outweighed by the interest of the public or any person in preventing the information from being disclosed.

(ENACTED 06/09)

How and when order can be made

5-28(6) A panel may make an order under subsection (5) on its own motion, or on the application of any person having an interest in the information to be disclosed. The order or application may be made before the hearing begins or at any time during the hearing. (ENACTED 06/09)

Decision of panel

5-28(7) The panel may dismiss the appeal, make any decision the chief executive officer could have made, or allow the appeal with or without conditions. A decision of the panel is final, except a decision to refuse to issue a practising certificate or a practising certificate free of conditions, which decision may be appealed to the Court of Appeal pursuant to section 76 of the Act. (ENACTED 05/08; AM. 06/09; 05/12)

Exception

5-28(8) Where the chief executive officer does not grant a person's abridgement request under rule 5-28.1(3), the person may appeal in writing to the chair of the committee within 14 days of his or her receipt of written confirmation of the decision and the right to appeal. The decision of the chair is final. (ENACTED 04/10)

Application of rule

5-28.1(1) This rule applies to a person whose application:

- (a) for admission to the CPLED program and as an articling student,
- (b) for call to the bar, or
- (c) to resume active practice,

has been refused because the person has not satisfied the chief executive officer or a panel of the appeals sub-committee that he or she is of good moral character and a fit and proper person to be admitted, called to the bar or to resume practice. (ENACTED 04/10) (AM. 05/12)

Waiting period

5-28.1(2) Subject to subsection (3), a person referred to in subsection (1) may not apply for admission, call or resumption for a period of two years after the later of:

- (a) the date the chief executive officer refused his or her application, or
- (b) the date a panel of the appeals sub-committee dismissed his or her appeal of the chief executive officer's decision to refuse the application.

(ENACTED 04/10) (AM. 05/12)

Abridgement

5-28.1(3) A person referred to in subsection (1) may submit a written request to the chief executive officer for permission to abridge the two year waiting period set out in subsection (2) and the chief executive officer may grant an abridgement request only if he or she is satisfied that there has been a material change in the person's circumstances.

(ENACTED 04/10)

Resumption of Active Practice

Resuming active practice

5-28.2 A member who is non-practising, or who has completed a period of suspension, must apply to resume active practice in Manitoba and the chief executive officer may issue a practicing certificate to a member, with or without conditions or restrictions, provided the member:

- (a) provides proof that he or she is of good moral character and a fit and proper person to practise;
- (b) passes such assessments or examinations and fulfills such requirements as may be prescribed by the chief executive officer;
- (c) pays the annual practising fee and required contributions; and
- (d) pays to the society all money owing by the member to the society.

(AM. 05/07; 10/07; 10/08; 05/10; 02/13) (AM. 04/24)

Former superior court judge

5-28.3 Subject to rule 5-28.7, a former judge of a superior court in Manitoba who is granted the privilege of resuming the active practice of law must not appear as counsel in the court of which he or she was a member or in any court inferior to that court, for a period of three years after he or she ceases to be a judge of that court. (ENACTED 10/10)

Former provincial judge

5-28.4 Subject to rule 5-28.7, a former judge of the Provincial Court in Manitoba who is granted the privilege of resuming the active practice of law must not appear as counsel in that court for a period of three years after he or she ceases to be a judge of that court. (ENACTED 10/10)

Part-time judge

5-28.5 A member who is a part-time judge of the Provincial Court in Manitoba must not appear as counsel in the Provincial Court. (ENACTED 10/10)

Former part-time judge

5-28.6 Subject to rule 5-28.7, a former part-time judge of the Provincial Court in Manitoba must not appear as counsel in the Provincial Court for a period of one year after he or she ceases to be a part-time judge of that court. (ENACTED 10/10)

Application to chief executive officer

5-28.7 A former judge may apply to the chief executive officer to reduce the time period during which the judge is prohibited from appearing as counsel in court. The chief executive officer may approve an application only in exceptional circumstances and may restrict the approval as he or she sees fit. (ENACTED 10/10)

Division 2 - Professional Liability Claims Fund

Definitions

5-29 In this part

“member” means a lawyer who holds a valid practising certificate issued by the society, but does not include a member who is not required to contribute to the professional liability claims fund under subsection 19(3) of the Act or rule 5-30(3); (AM. 10/07)

“annual contribution” means the amount a member must contribute each year to the professional liability claims fund.

Annual contribution

5-30(1) Each member must pay an annual contribution for the purpose of maintaining the professional liability claims fund.

Exemption

5-30(2) A practising lawyer who is not required to contribute to the professional liability claims fund under subsection 19(3) of the Act or under subsections (3) or (4) must complete and file an application for exemption from paying the contribution required under subsection (1). (AM. 05/07; 10/10)

Lawyers called to the bar in more than one jurisdiction

5-30(3) A lawyer may apply to the chief executive office for exemption from the requirement to contribute to the professional liability claims fund if he or she is a practising lawyer and resident in another Canadian jurisdiction and:

- (a) the governing body in that jurisdiction allows a similar exemption for members of the society; and
- (b) the lawyer maintains the full mandatory professional liability insurance coverage required in the other jurisdiction that is reasonably comparable in coverage and limits to that required of Manitoba lawyers and that coverage extends to his or her practice in Manitoba.

(ENACTED 05/07) (AM. 10/07)

Exemption for Canadian legal advisor

5-30(4) A Canadian legal advisor may apply to the chief executive officer for exemption from the requirement to contribute to the professional liability claims fund if he or she is a member in good standing of the Barreau du Quebec or the Chambre des notaires du Quebec authorized to practise law in Quebec and maintains the full mandatory professional liability insurance coverage required by the Barreau du Quebec or the Chambre des notaires du Quebec that extends to the Canadian legal advisor's practice in Manitoba. (ENACTED 10/10) (AM. 10/11)

Surcharge

5-31 The annual contribution may include a surcharge to certain members or classes of members based on their paid claims record, the nature of a paid claim, or both.

Unpaid deductible

5-32 A member's annual contribution must include the amount of any deductible owed by the member where:

- (a) the deductible or any part of it is unpaid as of May 1st, and
- (b) the member:
 - (i) has not made satisfactory arrangements with the chief executive officer for payment of the outstanding amount, or
 - (ii) has breached an agreement made with the chief executive officer respecting payment of the deductible.

Lawyers who do not contribute to the fund

5-33 The professional liability claims fund shall not respond to any claim made against a practising lawyer who is not required to contribute to the fund under subsection 19(3) of the Act or rule 5-30(3). A practising lawyer who ceases to qualify for the exemption under subsection 19(3) of the Act or rule 5-30(3) must immediately notify the chief executive officer of his or her change in circumstances and pay the applicable portion of the annual contribution. (AM. 10/07)

Duty to notify insurer

5-34 A member, as soon as practicable after becoming aware of any acts or omissions that may give rise to a professional liability claim, must give notice of the potential claim to the chief executive officer.

Duty to co-operate

5-35 A member must co-operate with the society and any insurer as may be required under the provisions of the contract of group insurance.

Failure to comply with rules

5-36 Failure to comply with any of the rules in this division without reasonable excuse may constitute professional misconduct.

5-63(10) Subject to subsection (11), a decision of the complaints review commissioner under subsection (8) is final and not subject to further review. (AM. 09/10)

Clarification

5-63(11) When the complaints review commissioner directs the chief executive officer to investigate a complaint that was determined to be of no merit under rule 5-62 and after investigating the complaint the chief executive officer determines not to refer the complaint to the complaints investigation committee for its consideration, the complainant may apply for a review of that decision under rule 5-63(3)(b). (ENACTED 09/10)

Investigation of complaints

5-64(1) Subject to rule 5-62, the chief executive officer must investigate a complaint to determine its validity.

Member to receive copy of complaint

5-64(2) The chief executive officer must send a letter to the member complained of enclosing a copy of the complaint or the relevant information.

Written Response

5-64(3) Subject to rule 5-65(2), a member who has been sent a letter under subsection (2), must respond in writing to the substance of the complaint and to further inquiries from the chief executive officer.

Response within 14 days

5-64(4) The member's response must be signed by the member personally or by his or her counsel and delivered to the chief executive officer within 14 days after the letter is received by the member or by such other date as may be set by the chief executive officer.

Failure to respond

5-64(5) A member's failure to respond in writing to the substance of a complaint or to further inquiries by the chief executive officer by the date set by the chief executive officer, without reasonable excuse, may constitute professional misconduct.

Copy of response must be sent to complainant

5-64(6) After receiving a response from a member, the chief executive officer must send a letter to the complainant enclosing either a copy of the member's response or a summary of it.

CEO investigation

5-64(7) The chief executive officer may appoint a member of the complaints investigation committee, counsel, or such other expert or person, as the chief executive officer considers appropriate, to assist in the investigation of a complaint.

Informal resolution of complaints

5-65(1) The chief executive officer may attempt to resolve a complaint informally at any time during his or her investigation of a complaint.

Written response not required

5-65(2) The chief executive officer may dispense with the requirement for a member to file a written response under rule 5-64(3), if he or she decides that the complaint may be satisfactorily resolved through informal means.

Where informal resolution unsuccessful

5-65(3) Where informal means do not satisfactorily resolve a complaint, the chief executive officer must investigate or continue the investigation of the complaint under rule 5-64.

Action after investigation

5-66 After investigating a complaint, the chief executive officer may:

- (a) take no further action if he or she is satisfied that;
 - (i) the complaint is without substance or its substance cannot be proved;
 - (ii) the member has provided a satisfactory explanation; or
 - (iii) the complaint has been satisfactorily resolved through informal means;
- (b) send a letter to the member reminding the member of his or her obligations under the Act, rules or code;
- (c) send a letter to the member recommending that a certain course of action be taken;
- (d) refer the complaint to the complaints investigation committee for its consideration;
- (e) direct that a charge be laid against the member when the member has:
 - (i) failed to respond to communication from the society or provide a full and substantive response to questions raised in the communication; or
 - (ii) breached any condition or restriction imposed on the member by the society or any undertaking given to the society;
- (f) require the member to appear personally before the complaints investigation committee to further the investigation of a complaint when the member has:
 - (i) failed to respond to communication from the society or provide a full and substantive response to questions raised in the communication; or
 - (ii) breached any condition or restriction imposed on the member by the society or any undertaking given to the society;
- (g) recommend that a member obtain healthcare treatment.

(AM. 06/11) (AM. 09/22)

Notice

5-67 The chief executive officer must notify the member and complainant in writing of the disposition of a complaint under rule 5-66 and, where applicable, must provide the complainant with instructions on how to apply for a review of the chief executive officer's decision under rule 5-63. (AM. 09/10)

Failure to follow CEO's recommendation

5-68 Where a member fails to satisfactorily follow a course of action recommended under rule 5-66(c), the chief executive officer may refer the complaint to the complaints investigation committee.

Division 7 - Complaints Investigation Committee

Definitions

5-69 In this division,

"chairperson" means the chairperson of the complaints investigation committee or his or her designate;

"committee" means the complaints investigation committee.

Committee objectives

5-70(1) The objectives of the committee are to:

- (a) consider complaints referred to it about the conduct or competence of members;
- (b) recommend the development of programs that will assist members to practise law competently; and
- (c) identify members who do not meet accepted standards in the practice of law and recommend remedial measures to assist them to improve their legal practices.

Composition of committee

5-70(2) The benchers must appoint not less than six benchers to serve as committee members.

Quorum

5-70(3) At a meeting of the committee, three committee members constitute a quorum, provided that one of the committee members in attendance is a lawyer bencher. (AM 10/19)

Consideration of complaint

5-71 The committee must consider any complaint referred to it by the chief executive officer, the complaints review commissioner or a committee of the society and while considering a complaint under this rule, the committee may also consider any other matters arising out of the member's practice of law. (AM. 09/10)

Investigation by committee

5-72(1) In considering a matter under rule 5-71 the committee may:

- (a) send a letter to the member requiring the member to respond in writing to the substance of the complaint and to further inquiries from the committee;
- (b) require the response to be signed by the member personally or by his or her counsel and delivered to the committee within 14 days after the letter is received by the member or by such other date as may be set by the committee; and
- (c) appoint a member of the committee, counsel, or such other expert or person as the committee deems appropriate to assist in the investigation of the complaint.

Failure to respond

5-72(2) A member's failure to respond in writing to the substance of a complaint or to further inquiries by the committee by the date set by the committee, without reasonable excuse, may constitute professional misconduct.

Further investigation

5-72(3) The committee may instruct the chief executive officer to conduct a further investigation and, in doing so, the chief executive officer may utilize any investigative steps authorized under rule 5-64.

Appearance by member

5-72(4) The committee may require a member to appear personally before the committee to further its consideration of a complaint or to help determine whether the member is practising law competently, on such date and at such time as the committee considers appropriate.

Urgent matters

5-72(5) Where the chairperson of the committee is of the opinion that information concerning the conduct or competence of a member is of such an urgent nature that it requires immediate consideration by the committee, the chairperson may require the member to appear personally before the committee, on such date and at such time as the chairperson considers appropriate.

Failure to appear

5-72(6) A member's failure to appear before the committee on the date and at the time set under subsections (4) or (5), or rule 5-66(f), without reasonable excuse, may constitute professional misconduct. (AM. 06/11)

Disqualification

5-73 A member of the committee must not consider a matter in which he or she or a member of his or her firm is either the complainant or the member whose conduct or competence is in question.

Action on complaints

5-74(1) After considering a complaint under rule 5-71, the committee may:

- (a) decide to take no further action;
- (b) send a letter to the member reminding the member of his or her obligations under the Act, rules or code;
- (c) send a letter to the member recommending that a certain course of action be taken;
- (d) make recommendations to the member under rule 5-83, which, if carried out, will improve the member's practice of law;
- (e) decide to hold consideration of the complaint in abeyance until any related proceedings are concluded or until such time as the committee decides to resume consideration of the complaint;
- (f) issue a formal caution to the member under rule 5-77;
- (g) direct that a charge be laid against the member under rule 5-78(1);
- (h) accept a written undertaking from the member under rule 5-79;
- (i) impose restrictions on the member's practice of law or suspend him or her under subsection 68(c)(i) of the Act;
- (j) order a practice review of the member's practice under rule 5-82(1);
- (k) decide to hold disposition of the complaint in abeyance until the member has completed any action plan recommended under rule 5-83;
- (l) suspend or impose restrictions on the permit of a member's law corporation under subsection 37(1) of the Act;
- (m) recommend that the member obtain healthcare treatment.

(AM. 09/22)

Additional action

5-74(2) Subject to rule 5-77, the committee is not precluded from taking any of the steps in subsection (1) because it has previously taken another of those steps in the same matter.

Notice

5-75 The chief executive officer must notify the complainant and the member in writing of any determination by the committee under rule 5-74(1).

Reconsideration

5-76 A complaint that has been dealt with under rule 5-74(1)(a) may be reconsidered by the committee at a later date and be the subject of further action.

Formal caution

5-77(1) The committee may censure or disapprove of a member's conduct by issuing a formal caution to the member. If the caution is accepted by the member, it must be issued in writing to him or her, no other action must be taken by the committee under rule 5-74(1) and the caution must not be the subject of an appeal.

Member may refuse caution

5-77(2) If a member refuses to accept a formal caution, the committee must issue and proceed with a charge under rule 5-78.

Caution is confidential

5-77(3) A formal caution, if accepted, is confidential.

Permitted disclosure

5-77(4) Despite subsection (3), a formal caution and the circumstances surrounding it may be disclosed:

- (a) to the committee, when it is considering any subsequent complaints about the member;
- (b) to a discipline panel that later convicts the member of any charge, to assist it in determining the appropriate penalty;
- (c) to the complainant, the member's designated person under rule 2-77, each other governing body of the legal profession in Canada of which the member is a member and in any database of membership information operating to facilitate the mobility of lawyers in Canada.

(AM. 02/05)

Charge

5-78(1) Where the committee or the chief executive officer directs that a charge be laid against a member, the chief executive officer must draft a charge that clearly states what the member is alleged to have done or omitted to do. (AM. 06/11)

Service of charge

5-78(2) A charge must be served on the member or his or her counsel and forwarded to the discipline committee. The charge must include a notice of the date, time and place:

- (a) of the hearing; or
- (b) for setting the hearing date

to determine the disposition of the charge against the member. (AM. 12/16)

Methods of service

5-78(3) Service on a member of a charge under subsection (2) may be effected by:

- (a) serving the member personally;
- (b) sending it by registered mail to the member's last known address; or

- (c) serving it personally on the member's counsel or delivering a copy to the member's counsel by electronic or other means.

Substitutional service

5-78(4) Where it is impractical or impossible to serve the charge as required under subsection (3), a discipline panel may make an order for substitutional service.

Charges may be disclosed

5-78(5) Once charges have been served on a member, the chief executive officer may disclose the charges to the members of the society and to the public.

Undertaking to society

5-79(1) Where a member gives the committee a written undertaking to do or refrain from doing anything, the undertaking is deemed to be an undertaking given to the society.

Breach of undertaking

5-79(2) The failure of a member, without reasonable excuse, to comply with an undertaking given under subsection (1) may constitute professional misconduct.

Notifying member of suspension

5-80(1) When the committee suspends a member from practising law under subsection 68(c)(i) of the Act or the permit of the member's law corporation is suspended under subsection 37(1)(c) of the Act, the chief executive officer must notify the member in writing of the action taken and that the member has the right to appeal the decision under subsection 75(1) of the Act.

Method of service

5-80(2) Service of the notification under subsection (1) may be effected in accordance with rule 5-78.

Publication of suspension

5-81(1) When the committee suspends a member from practising law under subsection 68(c)(i) of the Act, or the permit of the member's law corporation is suspended under subsection 37(1)(c) of the Act, the chief executive officer must place a notice of the suspension in one issue of a newspaper that is in circulation:

- (a) in the area where the member or law corporation has an office and from which the member or law corporation practises; or
- (b) where the member or law corporation is no longer practising, in the area where the member or law corporation last had an office and from which the member or law corporation last practised.

(AM. 06/03; 06/09)

Notice of suspension

5-81(2) When the committee suspends a member from practising law under subsection 68(c)(i) of the Act or the permit of the member's law corporation is suspended under subsection 37(1)(c) of the Act, the chief executive officer must give notice of the suspension to the members of the society, to the complainant, to each other governing body of the legal profession in Canada of which the member is a member, and the chief executive officer may disclose the suspension in any databank of membership information operating to facilitate the mobility of lawyers in Canada.

Publication of restrictions

5-81(3) Subject to subsection (4), when the committee imposes restrictions on a member's practice of law or on the member's law corporation permit under subsections 68(c)(i) or 37(1) of the Act, it may direct that the chief executive officer publish a notice of the restrictions to the members of the society or the public, or both, in a form and manner the committee considers appropriate. The chief executive officer may disclose the restrictions in any databank of membership information operating to facilitate the mobility of lawyers in Canada.

Publication of restrictions to refrain from practising certain areas of law

5-81(4) Where restrictions imposed under subsections 68(c)(i) or 37(1) of the Act require a member or his or her law corporation to refrain from practising in respect of certain areas of the law, the chief executive office must place a notice of the imposition of the restrictions in one issue of a newspaper that is in circulation:

- (a) in the area where the member or law corporation has an office and from which the member or law corporation practises; or
- (b) where the member or law corporation is no longer practising, in the area where the member or law corporation last had an office and from which the member or law corporation last practised.

(AM. 06/03; 06/09)

Notice of restrictions to refrain from practising certain areas of law

5-81(5) Where the restrictions imposed under subsections 68(c)(i) or 37(1) of the Act require the member or his or her law corporation to refrain from practising in respect of certain areas of the law, the chief executive officer must give notice of the restrictions to the members of the society, to the complainant, to each other governing body of the legal profession in Canada of which the member is a member, and the chief executive officer may disclose the restrictions in any databank of membership information operating to facilitate the mobility of lawyers in Canada.

Practice review

5-82(1) When the committee decides there are reasonable grounds to believe that a member is practising law in an incompetent manner, the committee may order a practice review of the member's practice or the member may consent to the review.

Conduct of review

5-82(2) When a practice review is ordered, the chief executive officer must select one or more qualified persons to conduct the review.

Scope of review

5-82(3) The practice reviewers must conduct a review of some or all of the files of the member, or of the practice of the member or his or her law firm or both, including, where appropriate, an examination of the procedures in place to reduce the risk of liability insurance claims.

Obligation to co-operate

5-82(4) A member whose practice is being reviewed under subsection (1) must answer any inquiries and provide the practice reviewers with any information, files or records in his or her possession or power as may be reasonably requested.

Report to the committee

5-82(5) After completing a practice review, the practice reviewers must deliver a written report of their findings and recommendations to the committee. The chief executive officer must provide a copy of the report to the member.

Action on practice review report

5-83 After considering the report received under rule 5-82(5), the committee may take any of the steps outlined in rule 5-74(1) and may recommend that the member do one or more of the following:

- (a) undertake not to practise certain areas of law;
- (b) satisfactorily complete a remedial program;
- (c) satisfactorily complete an examination approved by the committee or its designate;
- (d) implement measures to reduce the risk of liability insurance claims;
- (e) obtain a psychiatric or psychological assessment or counselling, or both, and if the committee requests, provide a report on that assessment or counselling to the committee;
- (f) obtain a medical assessment or assistance or both, and if the committee requests, provide a report of that assessment or assistance to the committee;
- (g) obtain such other reports, assessments or assistance as the committee considers appropriate and, if the committee requests, provide a report of that assessment or assistance to the committee;
- (h) practise in a setting approved by the committee;
- (i) take such other steps that the committee directs, that are intended to improve the member's practice of law or otherwise protect the public interest.

Remedial program

5-84 A remedial program under rule 5-83(b) may include any program approved by the committee that is intended to improve the member's knowledge and skill in the practice of law, including, but not limited to, one or more of the following:

- (a) a continuing legal education course or activity;
- (b) a remedial education course or activity;
- (c) a course or activity offered by an educational institution;
- (d) a program of mentoring or supervision by a practising member approved by the committee.

Completion dates

5-85(1) When making recommendations under rule 5-83, the committee may set one or more dates by which time the member is to complete the recommendations.

Extensions

5-85(2) The committee may extend the date by which the member is to complete a recommendation.

Notice to member

5-86 The chief executive officer must deliver a copy of the committee's recommendations to the member in writing.

Member refusal to accept recommendations or failure to complete

5-87 If the member refuses to accept the committee recommendations or having accepted the recommendations, fails, in the opinion of the committee, to satisfactorily complete the recommended action plan, the committee must proceed under rule 5-74(1).

Member acceptance of recommendations

5-88 If the member agrees to accept the committee recommendations, he or she must sign a written undertaking under rule 5-79(1).

Future access to report by committee

5-89 The committee, in considering a subsequent complaint against the member, may refer to:

- (a) all or part of a practice review report delivered under rule 5-82(5);
- (b) a committee recommendation under rule 5-83; and
- (c) a report on the manner in which the member carried out or followed any previous recommendations or failed or refused to do so.

Future use of report and recommendation

5-90 A discipline panel may receive in evidence at an inquiry:

- (a) all or any part of a practice review report delivered under rule 5-82(5);
- (b) the committee recommendations under rule 5-83; and
- (c) a report on the manner in which the member has carried out or followed any recommendation or failed or refused to do so.

Notice to complainant

5-91 The chief executive officer must notify the complainant in writing of the committee's decision under rule 5-82(1), but the complainant is not entitled to receive a copy of any report or the committee's recommendations about the member's practice.

Costs

5-92 The cost of a practice review, action or remedial program taken under rules 5-82, 5-83 and 5-84 must be shared between the member and the society based on a cost-sharing arrangement formulated by the committee.

Division 8 - Discipline Proceedings

5-93(1) – 5-93(4) Re-numbered and Restated

Definitions

5-93(1) In this division,

"committee" means the discipline committee.

(10/21)

Appointment of committee members

5-93(2) The benchers must appoint not less than six benchers to serve as members of the committee, and may appoint non-members to serve as members of the committee.

(10/21)

Duties of the committee

5-93(3) The duties of the committee are to:

- (a) hold hearings into charges against members;
- (b) set dates for a hearing or the continuation of a hearing;
- (c) determine preliminary motions;
- (d) order or conduct pre-hearing conferences;
- (e) hear reinstatement applications;
- (f) hear pardon applications; and
- (g) transact such other business as may come before them.

(ENACTED 01/15) (10/21)

Appointment of chairperson

5-93(4) The benchers:

- (a) shall appoint a chairperson of the committee who must be a member of the society and who is not a bencher, officer or employee of the society;

- (b) may appoint a vice-chairperson who must be a member of the society and who is a bencher;

(AM. 03/05; 01/15; 10/21)

General duties of the chairperson

5-93(5) The chairperson shall be responsible for the function and administration of the committee. When the chairperson is not available, the vice-chairperson may perform any function otherwise reserved to the chairperson.

(ENACTED 10/21)

Selection of panel members

5-93(6) The chairperson shall select members of the committee to a panel to conduct a hearing into the charges against a member.

(ENACTED 10/21)

Composition of panels

5-93(7) Each panel shall consist of three members of the committee where:

- (a) one of the panel members must be a public representative; and
- (b) two panel members must be members of the Society.

(ENACTED 10/21)

Exception to panel committee

5-93(8) If a member of a panel appointed under rule 5-93(7) who has participated in a hearing becomes unable, for any reason, to complete the hearing:

- (a) the remaining two panel members may complete the hearing, as if fully constituted; or
- (b) all parties to the matter may consent to a new panel being convened.

(ENACTED 10/21)

Administration of hearings

5-93(9) The chairperson, a panel of the committee, or a single member of the committee designated by the chairperson, may;

- (a) set a schedule for a hearing or continuation of a hearing;
- (b) adjourn a hearing;
- (c) order a pre-hearing conference;
- (d) conduct a pre-hearing conference;
- (e) give such directions and impose such terms as may facilitate the just disposition of a disciplinary proceeding;
- (f) make an order for substitutional service;
- (g) hear and determine preliminary motions;

and for any such purposes hold a hearing in such form as the chairperson, designated member, or panel may direct.

(ENACTED 10/21)

Panel required to hear and determine certain matters

5-93(10) Only a panel of the committee may hear and determine the substance of;

- (a) the charges against a member;
- (b) an application for reinstatement; or
- (c) a pardon application;

and such panel need not be the same panel as a panel appointed for the purposes set out in rule 5-93(9). (ENACTED 10/21)

Composition of discipline panels

5-94(1) Repealed (10/21)

Exception

5-94(2) Repealed (01/15)

Disqualification

5-95 A member of the committee must not sit as a member of a panel where:

- (a) the committee member or any other member of his or her law firm:
 - (i) is the complainant or has advised the complainant in connection with the matter that is the subject of the hearing;
 - (ii) will be a witness;
 - (iii) conducted the pre-hearing conference in the matter that is the subject of the hearing unless the parties consent to the member sitting as a member of the panel; or
- (b) a member of his or her firm:
 - (i) is the member whose conduct or competence is the subject of the hearing;
 - (ii) is appearing as counsel; or
 - (iii) the committee member sat as a member of the complaints investigation committee when it considered the matter that is the subject of the hearing.

(AM. 10/21)

Chairperson to appoint panel

5-96(1) Repealed (10/21)

Right to counsel

5-96(2) A member whose conduct or competence is the subject of a hearing is entitled to be represented by counsel.

Law society counsel

5-96(3) The chief executive officer may appoint counsel employed by the society or retain other counsel to draft and prosecute a charge.

Setting and serving notice of a hearing date

5-96(4) The date, time and place for a hearing must be set by agreement between counsel for the society and the member or his or her counsel or failing agreement, by the chairperson. Notice of the date, time and place of the hearing must be served on the member or his or her counsel. (AM. 09/13)

Method of service

5-96(4.1) Service of the notice under subsection (4) may be effected in accordance with rules 5-78(3) and 5-78(4). (ENACTED 09/13)

Resolution of panel

5-96(5) After hearing and considering the evidence and representations made, a panel must make and record a resolution stating:

- (a) which, if any, of the acts or omissions stated in the charge have been proven to the satisfaction of the panel; and
- (b) whether or not, by the acts or omissions so proved, the member is guilty of professional misconduct or conduct unbecoming a lawyer or student, or incompetence.

(AM. 10/21)

Dismissal of charge

5-96(6) When a panel finds that a member is not guilty of professional misconduct or conduct unbecoming a lawyer or student, or incompetence, it must dismiss the charge.

(AM. 10/21)

Consequences

5-96(7) When a panel finds that a member is guilty of professional misconduct or of conduct unbecoming a lawyer or student or incompetence, it may impose one or more of the consequences set out under sections 72 and 73 of the Act.

(AM. 10/21)

Costs

5-96(8) When a panel finds that a member is guilty of professional misconduct or of conduct unbecoming a lawyer or student, or incompetence, it may, pursuant to section 72 of the Act, order the member to pay all or any part of the costs incurred by the society in connection with any investigation or proceedings relating to the matter in respect of which the member was found guilty including, but not limited to, the following items:

- (a) all reasonable disbursements incurred by the society in investigating and proceeding to the hearing;
- (b) audit fees for time spent by auditors/investigators employed by the society in investigating and proceeding to the hearing, at rates set from time to time by the chief executive officer. These rates must reflect the actual costs connected with the investigation and hearing;
- (c) counsel fees for time spent by lawyers in investigating and preparing for proceeding to the hearing, but excluding the time spent at the hearing of the matter, at rates set from time to time by the chief executive officer. These rates must reflect the actual costs connected with the investigation and hearing;
- (d) $500 for each one-half day of hearing, including the hearing of motions, arguments and other proceedings; and
- (e) honoraria paid to members of the panel who sit on a hearing, including the hearing of motions, arguments, and other proceedings.

(AM. 10/21)

Public access to record of hearing

5-96(9) The chief executive officer may disclose the record of the hearing to the members of the society and to the public, except for any parts of the record pertaining to proceedings held in camera.

Record of hearing

5-96(10) For the purposes of rule 5-96(9), the record of the hearing includes, but is not limited to:

- (a) the citation of the charges laid under rule 5-78(1);
- (b) the exhibits submitted in evidence at the hearing;
- (c) the transcript of the hearing; and
- (d) the written reasons of the panel or the transcript of the panel's oral reasons.

(AM. 10/21)

Service of decision on member

5-97 Following a hearing, the chief executive officer must serve a copy of the written reasons of the panel on the member or his or her counsel. When a member has been found guilty of professional misconduct or of conduct unbecoming a lawyer or student, or incompetence, the chief executive officer must also notify the member or his or her counsel of the member's right to appeal the decision under section 76 of the Act.

(AM. 10/21)

Report to complaints investigation committee

5-98 Following a hearing, the chief executive officer must provide a report, to include a copy of the written reasons of the panel, to the chairperson of the complaints investigation committee. (AM. 10/21)

Report to benchers

5-99 The panel must report its findings and disposition to the benchers at the first bencher meeting following the hearing.
(AM. 10/21)

Publication of disbarment, suspension, resignation, restrictions on practice

5-100(1) When a lawyer is disbarred or suspended from practising law or permitted to resign his or her membership in the society or restrictions are imposed on the lawyer's practice that he or she refrain from practising in respect of certain areas of the law or where the permit of the lawyer's law corporation is revoked or suspended as a result of a finding of:

- (a) professional misconduct;
- (b) conduct unbecoming a lawyer; or
- (c) incompetence;

the chief executive officer must place a notice of the action taken in one issue of a newspaper that is in circulation:

- (d) in the area where the lawyer or law corporation has an office and from which the lawyer or law corporation practises; or
- (e) where the lawyer or law corporation is no longer practising, in the area where the lawyer or law corporation last practised and from which the lawyer or law corporation last practised.

(AM. 06/03; 06/09)

Notice when member found guilty

5-100(2) When a member is found guilty of professional misconduct, or conduct unbecoming a lawyer or student, or incompetence, the chief executive officer must give notice of the finding to the members of the society, to any party whose complaint gave rise to the charge against the member, to each other governing body of the legal profession in Canada of which the member is a member and the chief executive office may disclose the conviction in any database of membership information operating to facilitate the mobility of lawyers in Canada. The notice must include:

- (a) the name of the member;
- (b) the name of the member's law corporation, if the member is the sole voting shareholder;
- (c) the nature of the charge pursuant to which the member was found guilty, including brief particulars;

- (d) the penalty imposed, including any restrictions; and
- (e) any costs imposed.

The panel may direct the chief executive officer to publish to the public such information concerning its findings as it considers appropriate in the circumstances in such manner and by such means as it may determine. (AM. 10/21)

Notice when member found not guilty

5-100(3) When a member is found not guilty of professional misconduct, or conduct unbecoming a lawyer or student or incompetence, the chief executive officer must:

- (a) give notice of the decision to any party whose complaint gave rise to the charge; and
- (b) give notice of the finding to the members of the society. This notice must include the nature of the charge but must not disclose the name of the member or the name of the member's law corporation without the member's consent.

The panel may direct the chief executive officer to publish to the public such additional information concerning its findings as it considers appropriate in the circumstances in such manner and by such means as it may determine. (AM. 02/13; 10/21)

Further investigation

5-101 When, in the course of a hearing, a matter concerning the conduct or competence of a member comes to the attention of the panel, and it is of the opinion that the conduct or competence requires investigation, the panel may refer the matter to the chief executive officer for investigation under division 6 of this Part. (AM. 10/21)

Application for a pardon

5-101.1(1) Subject to subsection (2), in circumstances where:

- (a) a member's conduct was censured by the Complaints Investigation Committee and the member accepted a formal caution; or
- (b) a panel found a member guilty of professional misconduct or conduct unbecoming a lawyer or student or incompetence and imposed a reprimand or fine, with or without an order of costs, and no other order, action or penalty was imposed on the member by the panel as a result of that conviction, the member may apply to the committee for a pardon. (ENACTED 03/05) (AM. 10/21)

Definition of pardon

5-101.1(2) A pardon is evidence of the fact that the Society no longer considers the censure or conviction to reflect adversely on the member's character. (ENACTED 03/05)

Application criteria

5-101.1(3) At the time a member makes an application under subsection (1), the following criteria must be satisfied:

- (a) ten years have passed since the date of the censure or conviction;
- (b) since the date of the censure or conviction the member has not accepted any other formal cautions and has not been found guilty of any other charges of professional misconduct, conduct unbecoming a lawyer or student or incompetence;
- (c) there are no charges pending against the member;
- (d) there are no complaints about the member under investigation;
- (e) the member has paid the society all money owing by the member to the society; and
- (f) a panel has not granted any previous application by the member under this rule.

(ENACTED 03/05) (AM. 10/21)

Convening a hearing

5-101.1(4) Where the chairperson of the committee is satisfied that the applicant has met the criteria set out in subsection (3), the chairperson must establish a panel to hear the application and make a determination. A hearing date must be set and notice provided to the applicant in accordance with rule 5-96(4). (ENACTED 03/05) (AM. 10/21)

Role of panel

5-101.1(5) A panel may grant a pardon if it determines that:

- (a) the member has met all the criteria set out in subsection (3); and
- (b) under all the circumstances, a pardon is appropriate.

(ENACTED 03/05)

Service of decision on applicant

5-101.1(6) Following a hearing, the chief executive officer must serve a copy of the written decision of the panel on the member or his or her counsel in accordance with rules 5-78(3) and 5-78(4). (ENACTED 03/05) (AM. 10/21)

Disclosure of pardoned censure or conviction

5-101.1(7) A determination by a panel to grant a pardon does not set aside the censure or conviction or relieve the society of any obligation to disclose the censure or conviction under the Act or these rules. Any disclosure of a censure or conviction that has been pardoned must also disclose that the member has received a pardon and that the Society no longer considers the censure or conviction to reflect adversely on the member's character. (ENACTED 03/05) (AM. 10/21)

Division 9 - Reinstatement

Reinstatement

5-102(1) A person who has been disbarred and struck off the rolls or permitted to resign his or her membership in the society or a student, who has been expelled and had his or her name struck off the student register may seek to be reinstated by making written application to the chief executive officer and paying the required fee.

Required material

5-102(2) An applicant must submit a statutory declaration, with attachments verifying the information contained therein, showing:

- (a) the character, conduct, habits of life, particulars of employment and means of livelihood of the applicant since he or she ceased to be a member of the society;
- (b) the applicant's present financial position;
- (c) that restitution of any property and payment of all money that was misappropriated or converted by the applicant has been made, or the reason why restitution or payment has not been made;
- (d) that the applicant has paid back to the society any money paid out of the reimbursement fund for any misappropriation or conversion by the applicant;
- (e) the source from which and the manner in which money was obtained by the applicant in order to make the payments in clauses (c) and (d);
- (f) particulars of any other matters that might be the subject of a complaint to the society;
- (g) payment of all money owing by the applicant to the society or a proposal for repayment acceptable to the chief executive officer;
- (h) that the applicant has not, since he or she ceased to be a member of the society, contravened any provision of the Act; and
- (i) such other material as the society may require.
