Position Summary:

As a key member of our organization, reporting to the Group Director, Legal and Compliance, you will be responsible for providing general legal support and advice in a diverse range of areas to NFI and its various business units and subsidiaries.

What You Will Do:

- Provide proactive strategic and tactical advice on legal issues on a variety of matters relating to NFI's businesses, including corporate/commercial, litigation and regulatory matters.
- Identify legal issues and risks and provide advice regarding the management of those issues and risks.
- Manage litigation matters and supervise external litigation counsel.
- Negotiate and draft a wide range of legal agreements and other documents.
- Provide advice in respect of and manage regulatory, risk prevention and compliance matters.
- Draft corporate policies and provide advice on governance issues.
- Assist the NFI Legal team and senior management with corporate, financing, mergers and acquisitions and other transactions.
- Liaise with the NFI business units and other functional areas of NFI (e.g., Finance, Tax, Supply, etc.).

Skills and Experience:

- Have a law degree and a current license to practice law in a Canadian or U.S. jurisdiction.
- Five + years of corporate or commercial legal experience in a law firm or in-house legal department.
- Advanced problem-solving, analytical and decision-making skills are essential.
- Ability to converse in a professional manner and collaborate with all team members at all levels of the organization.
- Strong organizational and time-management skills with the ability to multitask.
- Ability to work independently and possess initiative to seek improvements.
- Motivated self-starter with capabilities to work within a fast-paced team-oriented environment.

Why Join our Team:

- Competitive wages and a comprehensive benefits package.
- A continuous learning environment.
- Ability to advance your career with a growing company.
- NFI Group has been named a Manitoba Top Employer for 2020 and this is the tenth since the competition was established in 2007.
- Employee social committee organizes numerous events throughout the year, including summer barbecues, holiday festivities, sporting events and tournaments, and much more.
- Ongoing employee development through a variety of in-house training initiatives along with tuition subsidies for courses at outside institutions.
